TURIN, April 6.

ON the 1ſt Inſt. the K. of Sardinia met at the Foot of the Bridge of the Beauvoiſin, which ſeparates Savoy from Dauphiny, his Bride, with a great Retinue from Lorrain. She advanced to him with this Compliment: Sir, I am charmed to ſee a Prince covered with Laurels, whom I look upon as my Maſter and my King. The King embracing her tenderly, anſwer'd: Madam, I deſire only to be ſo over your Heart; I beſeech you not to refuſe it me. This Queen is very beautiful, has a fine Shape, and majeſtic Mien

From Paris. That the King had ordered the Officers, of his Troops, in Garriſon or not, to wear an uniform Habit, and not to add any ſuperfluous Ornament thereto, either by Lace or Buttons, on pain of being Broke.—That the Marquis de Monti, who had acquired ſo much Reputation for his real Activity and ſeeming Zeal for the Service of K. Staniſlaus, who was honour'd with the Order of the Holy Ghoſt, and named Ambaſſador to Vienna, was diſgraced; having ſhared with Mr. Chauvelin, thoſe Sums that were ſent to engage the Poliſh and Pruſſian Grandees, in the Intereſt of that Prince.

That the Sieur Maille had diſcover'd a Secret to careen the King's Ships ſo as to prevent them from Decay, and by the ſame Compoſition propoſed to cement the Marble with which the ſeveral Pieces of Water in the Garden of Verſailles are pav'd, as that they ſhall anſwer the End of an entire Piece.—That alſo by Virtue of this Secret, that magnificent Piece of Architecture, the Roof of the Orangery, ſhall be preſerved from Moiſture and Decay.—That there had been Proof made of it, which ſucceeded very well.

From Venice. That Kouli Kan reigu'd peaceably at Iſpahan.—Tho' there was a Party up in Arms againſt him, the Remains of the old Rebels, headed by Mery Iſſan, Brother to the famous Meriweis, and not by a Prince of the Blood: Becauſe Kouli, according to the Maxims of the Eaſtern Princes, put to death all the Line of the antient Sophys, except Thamas, and his Son Abas, whom he keeps confined in the Caſtle of Ormus

From Naples. That his Sicilian Majeſty has reduced the Intereſt of the Publick Debts from 8 to 4 per Cent. and that there was a Project on foot to appropriate a great Part of the Revenues of the Church in that Kingdom to the Uſe of the Government; and that each Fryar and Nun would be allowed a certain Sum, and no more, for their Subſiſtance

From Proske, near Roſenberg in Poland. That a Famine raged in thoſe Parts, and that a Woman had her Head cut off for killing and eating her own Infant.—That a Peaſant and his Family were taken up for having conſumed the Fleſh of 2 ſmall Children, and another of 12 Years old.

From Petersburgh. That Maj. Gen. Heiin was ſentenced to be ſhot for neglecting a good Opportunity of attacking the Tartars, by a Party of whom Leſlie was ſurpriſed and kill'd, and his Son taken Priſoner.—The Turks and Ruſſians are in Motion for an Engagement.

Extract of a Letter from Holland.

"By Letters from France we are adviſed, that his Catholick Majeſty had ſent Orders to the Governors of his Dominions in America to keep a good Look out, for that he was well informed, that his Britanick Majeſty intended to ſend a Squadron of Men of War to cruiſe on the Coaſts of Porto Bello. Thoſe Letters add, that they continue to ſeize all the Britiſh Ships they meet with trading in the American Seas; but that more regard is ſhewn to the Hollanders, agreeable both to what Mouſ. Vander Meer wrote, and the Marquis St. Gilles declared, of the favourable Diſpoſition his Catholick Majeſty entertained for the Republick: But that is no Proof of the good Will of the Court of Spain towards that of Great-Britain, againſt which it is ſaid ſomething is hatching at Madrid. The whole Conduct of the Spaniards ſhews their Malignity againſt the Engliſh and this Opinion is the more confirm'd by the frequent Conferences the Queen of Spain holds with the Duke of Montemar, and the Meaſures taken at Court to augment the Spaniſh Troops, inſtead of reducing them: To what all this Stir, if ſome Deſign be not in View? The Marquis St. Gilles, in a Conference with the States Deputies, had notified to them, that his Catholick Majeſty had cauſed ſtrict Enquiry to be made concerning the Dutch Veſſels and Cargoes which were taken and condemned in America, and that it appear'd that the Captains of thoſe Veſſels were not provided with ſufficient Paſports, and that they carried prohibited Goods; but that notwithſtanding all this, his Catholick Majeſty had ſent Orders to the Governor forwith to ſet at Liberty the two Ships in queſtion, and permit them to return Home: Nevertheleſs his Catholick Majeſty intreats their High Mightineſſes to take proper Meaſures to prevent their Subjects from trading to the Weſt Indies, where Navigation and Commerce is forbid to all Foreigners, as being the only Means to avoid for the future, all cauſe of Complaint, and cultivate a good Underſtanding between the two States."

Extract of a Letter from Northamptonſhire.

There was lately diſcover'd on Mr. Compton's Eſtate, at Caddleſtock, near Oundle in Northamptonſhire a beautiful Roman Pavement 20 Foot ſquare and very little defac'd by Time; near it were found Bones, Aſhes, and Pieces of Urns, an Indication that the Body of ſome noted Heathen had been buryed there; among the Rubbiſh thrown off the Pavement 5 or 6 Roman Medals of Braſs were diſcovered, 2 of which were fair and ſeem'd to bear the ſame Image on one ſide, with this Inſcription. D. N. VALENTINIANUS P. F. AUG. i. e. Dominus noſter Valentinianus Pius Felix Auguſtus. On the other ſides were different Images and Motto's. One had the Image of Victory, ſtepping from the Right to the Left: A Coronet of Laurel in her Right Hand, and a Palm Branch in her Left: On the Reverſe of another was the Figure of an Emperor in an erect Posture, leaning with his Right Hand on the Head of a Captive, kneeling on one Knee with his Hands tied behind him. His left Hand was supported by a Staff with a Crucifix on the Top of it, denoting him to be a Christian, as Valentinian was; one of the Medals was struck at Constantinople, the other at Sifcia, as appear'd by the Letters at the Bottom of them. We expect a Draught of all these Curiosities, in order to give our Readers a better Idea of them.

and

LONDON, May 4.

They write from Venice, that Preparations for War are carrying on with great Diligence throughout the Territories of the Republick, but she will not act against the Turks, before the Powers who engage in the War against the Porte have given satisfactory Security as to the Conquests that may be made by her.

From Madrid, that pursuant to a particular Convention made between the Courts of Spain and Portugal, Orders have been dispatched by each to the Governors of their respective Provinces in America, to publish a Suspension of Arms, to continue till the Difficulties be adjusted which relate to the settling of the Limits on each Side.

From Naples, that the King of the Two Sicilies has lately established a new Council of War; and has appointed the Duke de Monteleon Pignatellia to go Ambassador to the Court of Great-Britain.

From Rome, that the Eldest Son of the Pretender is preparing to travel incognito, into several European Countries; and that he intends to go directly to Turin, to assist at the Rejoycings made there on Occasion of the Marriage of the King of Sardinia

That an armed Bark which lately sailed from Civita Vecchia to cruize against the Corsairs of Barbary, fell in with a Vessel carrying French Colours, off the Height of Mount Circio, which came to her in full Sail, but when within Musket-shot put out Algerine Colours, and attack'd her by discharging a Broad-side. The Bark having put herself in a proper Posture, attack'd the Algerine with so much Bravery, that though she had lost her Captain in the Beginning of the Fight, she put the Rover to flight, and pursued her, till by Favour of the Night she lost Sight of her. The Algerine carried 14 Guns and 150 Men, and the Bark only eight Guns and 80 Men.

From Hanover, that two Battalions of the Troops of Wolfenbuttel, which are to be employed in the Emperor's Service, will begin their March for Hungary the 15th Instant. Numbers of Horse pass daily to remount the Imperial Cavalry Many Officers of the Troops of this Electorate are desirous to make a Campaign in Hungary, and wait only the King's Permission for so doing That there has been executed a Gang of Thieves, consisting of four Men and two Women: The chief of them, who assumed the Title of Baron, with one other, had their Flesh torn off with red hot Pincers, and were broke alive upon the Wheel; a third, with the two Women, were beheaded; and the fourth was hang'd. Four others were sent to Hamel to hard Labour.

Last Night one of Majesty's Messengers arrived with an Express at St. James's, from the Right Hon. the Earl of Waldegrave, his Majesty's Ambassador to the Court of France.

The same Day the Lord Augustus Fitz Roy, second Son to his Grace the Duke of Grafton, kiss'd his Majesty's Hand at St James's, on his taking Leave of his Majesty and the rest of the Royal Family; and the latter End of this Week will set out for Portsmouth, in order to embark on board his Majesty's Ship the Eltham, from whence he will proceed for his Station in the West-Indies.

Extract of a private Letter from Holland.

'King Theodore, after having been confin'd eight Days 'in the Town-House of Amsterdam, was set at liberty on 'Tuesday the 7th instant, N S. upon Security. This 'Affair, as it was most extraordinary in itself, so it ended by an extraordinary political Proceeding; and 'tis 'assur'd that their High Mightinesses had a great Hand 'in the unexpected taking off his Arrest. The Republick was much embarrass'd at its being known they had 'such a Personage in their Power, and it was to prevent 'the Consequences of it so much haste was taken to discharge him. Their High Mightinesses communicated 'their Difficulties to the Counsellor-Deputies of this Province, and they to the Magistracy of Amsterdam, who 'soon found out an Expedient to remove all their Fears. 'King Theodore appear'd before the Council with a 'Sword by his side, who declar'd his Arrest void; where-'upon he immediately went out of the Town House; but 'it is thought he return'd there again before Night, to 'regulate some Affairs. Before his Arrest, a certain Per-'son went from the Hague to Amsterdam, and staid there 'some Days; and before it could be known that he was 'arrested, he receiv'd an Order from the same Person, 'that 12000 Musketts should be deliver'd him; and as 'that Person is known to be an Agent from the King of 'the Two Sicilies, this Discovery confirms a receiv'd Opi-'nion, that King Theodore is supported in his Enterprize 'against the Genoese, either by the Court of Naples, or 'that of Spain.

From Lizbon, that his Portuguese Majesty declared publickly to the Ministers of State and Nobility, that the Difference between him and the King of Spain were entirely adjusted, and an Accomodation settled. That Affair being ended, Sir John Norris, with the Squadron under his Command, which had been at Lizbon a Year and a half, set sail for England the 6th Instant. It is said that Fleet has cost his Majesty near a Million of Cruzadoes, during its stay there. When Admiral Norris had his Audience of Leave, he was desired to assure his Britannick Majesty, "That his Portuguese Majesty should ever pre-"serve the Remembrance of the Friendship he had re-"ceived from the King of Great-Britain in his late Si-"tuation of Affairs, and should endeavour on all Occasions, "to shew his Acknowledgement of it." The King further added "That out of a particular Regard to the "English Nation, and her trading Subjects with the "Crown of Portugal, whether in Europe or the Indies, "they should enjoy the same Priviledges with respect to "their Commerce as Natives"

Edinburg, April 19. We hear from Elgin, that upon the 4th current, died the Master of the Musick School of that Place, the greatest Vocal Musician of his Time, who wanted nothing but Ambition to render him as conspicuous for his Skill in Scots Musick, as the famous Farinelli is for the Italian.

CHARLES-TOWN, August 20.

On Thursday Night last, at the Solomon's Lodge in Charlestown, a Depution from the Right worshipful and right Honourable John Earl of Loudoun, constituting and appointing a Provincial Grand Master of South Carolina, was read, when James Graeme Esq; the present Grand Master of the said Province propoled James Wright Esq; to be Master of the Solomon's Lodge, which was unanimously agreed to by the Lodge.

ADVERTISEMENT.

WHEREAS there has been little or no Regard had to the many Advertiſements publiſhed in the former Gazettes relating to Grants lying ſigned in the Secretary's Office of this Province, by which, it evidently appears that ſome of the Grantees would if poſſible, defraud the Officers concern'd of their juſt and lawful Fees, ſome of the ſaid Grants having been ſign'd 3 and others 4 Years ago, notwithſtanding whereof the greateſt Lenity hath been hitherto ſhown on that Account. Theſe are therefore to give Notice, that the following Perſons have Grants ſigned in the Secretary's Office aforeſaid, and upon paying the Fees due may have them delivered when demanded; and further to certify all thoſe who ſhall refuſe or neglect to make ſuch their Demand in one Month after Date hereof, that Warrants will be iſſued againſt them, as the moſt ſummary Way of recovering the ſaid Fees.
